

Name: _____

General Concentration

General Education Requirements:

- Composition I: _____
- Advanced Composition: _____
- Quantitative Reasoning I: _____
- Quantitative Reasoning II: _____
or second QRI course

- Cultural Studies:
Western Cultures: _____
Non-Western Cultures: _____
U.S Minority Cultures: _____

- Non-Primary Language:
four levels of one language or three levels of two different languages.

- Humanities & Arts (6 hrs):

- Social & Behavioral Sciences (6 hrs):

- Natural Sciences & Technology (6 hrs):

The General Political Science concentration provides students with a broad understanding of government and politics, political behavior, and public policy, both in the US and around the world.

- PS 100: Intro to Political Science (3 hrs)

- Any 100- or 200- level PS course (9 hrs):

- Advanced (300- or 400- level) political science courses (15 hrs):

- Additional PS courses at any level (6 hrs):

- Supporting Coursework outside of political science. Must be at the 200-level or above (12 hrs):

Advanced supporting course work courses may be counted in the LAS advanced hour requirement. Courses used for a double major or minor may count as supporting course work. Courses cross-listed as PS may not be used for supporting course work. Contact your PS advisor if you have any questions.

Other Requirements:

- LAS Advanced Hour (300- or 400- level) Requirement (21 hrs):

Political science major course work (15 hrs)
_____ (3 hrs)
_____ (3 hrs)

LAS Degree hours (min. 120):
Earned/IP: _____ Remaining: _____

Notes: